Pat Donahoo

answered God's call to ministry by serving in her local congregation, district youth leadership, the regional church, pastoral ministry, and now in her role as Executive Director of Disciples Women for the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Pat's ministry is marked by community building and a common sense of belonging where all are invited to the table rather than a membership-oriented or checklist of requirements structure. Pat is part of the General Minister's cabinet, a member of the Justice Table, Secretary to the International Disciples Women's Ministry Executive Committee, Secretary/Treasurer of Global Women Connecting, cabinet representative on the Administrative Committee of the General Board, and non-voting staff on Disciples Home Missions Board. She also participates with the Justice for Women Working Group and the National Council of Churches.

Pat was raised in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), studied at a Presbyterian seminary, and completed her doctorate at a Methodist University. She has served the Capital and Pennsylvania Regions in ministries of Congregational Life Commission, Transformation Coordinator/Staff Member, DWM Worship Director, DWM Study Director, Director of Communion for the Mix '06, Communications Team, and Director and Counselor of Outdoor Camping Ministry.

Pat contributed to DOC Justice Primer published 2012 and wrote a companion Bible study. She has also contributed to Just Women magazine. Pat publishes a Disciples Women blog, "Patchwork of Ponderings" at www.discipleswomen.wordpress.com. Pat wrote and directed a children's musical using camp and Bible songs called "Singing in the Name." She also wrote VBS curricula around a Habitat for Humanity theme and project as well as a Miracle Day theme.

Pat finds joy in many things, some of which are scrapbooking, quilting, friends and family, including twin daughters, a son and his wife, two grandsons and a granddaughter.
